Stewardship: "So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." GENESIS 2:19

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

A Note from Fr. Matthew

"Because of the hardness of your hearts, [Moses] wrote this commandment . . .

"[T]hey are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate."

" . . . Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it."

Mark 10: 2-16

Tom Coughlin's new playbook

Tom Coughlin is the two-time Super Bowl-winning head coach with the New York Giants. He also coached the Jacksonville Jaguars, as well as the Boston College Eagles.

But Coughlin is not on the sidelines this fall. He's at the bedside of his beloved wife, Judy. A year ago, Judy was diagnosed with a progressive brain disorder that has left her unable to walk, speak, think and control her body. Judy's condition is incurable; it has taken her memory and her ability to express emotions.

In a heart-breaking essay in The New York Times [August 24, 2021], Coughlin writes candidly about taking on the role of caregiver:

"The first year I was home was frustrating. Judy had always taken care of everything at the house, and I had always thrived on the structure of football. That was gone, and I was lousy at my new job. I would constantly tell myself, I shouldn't be here. But now, even though I am still lousy at being at home, I know there is no other place I could ever be . . .

"When Judy is having a good day, then my day is good. But then there are dark days — those days that are so full of frustration and anger, they have me feeling like a failure and pondering the unfairness of the disease. I've spent my entire life preparing for some of the biggest games a person could play, but nothing can prepare you to be a caregiver who has to watch a loved one slip away.

"I am not seeking sympathy. It's the last thing I want. It's the last thing that most caregivers want. Taking care of Judy is a promise I made 54 years ago when she was crazy enough to say I do. I do want the players I coached in college and in the N.F.L. who thought all my crazy ideas about discipline, commitment and accountability ended when they left the field to know that is not the case. The truth is that this is when those qualities matter most. A friend said we don't get to choose our sunset, and that's true, but I am so blessed to get to hold Judy's hand through hers . . ."

Tom and Judy Coughlin's experience resonates with every married couple who has journeyed together through the unexpected and the challenging, who have seen some of their dreams realized and some expectations dashed. The only constant is the faithfulness of two hearts that have been joined by God into a single heart that loves, that lifts up, that mends and heals. That's the mystery and wonder of the marriage covenant. Marriage demands not perfection but commitment; it requires the hard work of patience, understanding and humility. In every stage of a couple's life, a marriage centered in the love of God always moves beyond "hardness of heart" to embracing God's spirit of generosity and selflessness. In such a marriage, Christ is the ever-present Wedding Guest who makes a couple's simple, everyday life together a miraculous sacrament in which the love of God is revealed to all.

Have a great week and I'll see you in church. Fr. Matthew

BOX OF JOY: "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." Mk 9:35b-37a Dear St. Barbara Church Family, Last year St. Barbara's along with members of other churches in the area and St. Raphael's were able to help bring Christmas Joy to 61,422 poor children in developing countries. With Fr. Matthew's blessing we will once again join in this ministry of Cross Catholic Outreach and the Stark Deanery Council of Catholic Women.

Boxes will be available the weekend of Oct. 2nd and 3rd. There will be a sign-up sheet at either end of the Narthex. If you take a box, please sign your name and phone number. Boxes and donations need to be returned by Nov. 6th and 7th to be packed for pickup by Nov. 10th. Our PSR families and St. Barbara's Caring Stitchers were very instrumental in making this a successful endeavor. We thank you and appreciate all of you for your generous hearts.

Listed are some ways you can help: 1.Fill a box with items suggested on the "Gift Ideas" sheet and enclose a $9.00 check made out to Cross Catholic Outreach. This donation covers both US and International shipping and handling and helps support the ministries of the priests, nuns and lay missionaries, working with these children. 2.Another way is to donate one or more items on the "Gift Ideas" list, bring them to church and place in the box provided. 3.A third way for those who choose not to go out shopping due to the virus or because of physical limitations, you can be a part of the mission. You can put a donation of any amount you choose in an envelope marked "Box of Joy" to be used toward gift items or shipping and handling, and place it in the collection. 4.Nov. 2nd we commemorate All Souls Day. You might want to give a "Box of Joy" in memory of one of your loved ones who have died.

Whatever way the Holy Spirit inspires you to be a part of the Stark County Deanery Council of Catholic Women and Cross Catholic Outreach ministry, we thank you. This is a wonderful way to raise awareness in the hearts of families and children to the needs of others. Please find the list of "Gift Ideas" above. For more information and a video on you tube go to Box of Joy.org resources.
