BINGO HELP: With the closing of St. Barbara School, we have fewer volunteers to help with weekly bingo at the St. Barbara Campus. Bingo is an excellent fundraiser for the parish and also supports Catholic Education. Help with bingo does not require a weekly commitment. We are currently seeking support in three ways: 1. One volunteer is needed each Wednesday to provide a baked good for sale. 2. One to two volunteers to serve food and beverages, and to close the kitchen at the end of intermission. (4:00 pm to 8:00 pm each Wednesday). 3. One to two volunteers to help sell instant bingo tickets during Bingo and at intermission. Our goal is to compile a list of volunteers in each area and create a rotating schedule. Please consider if you and a friend could help in any of these areas. If we are able to get enough volunteers, your commitment would only be once every 4 to 6 weeks. Please call Janet Bickel (330) 806-7366 if you are interested in helping.

SAINT JOSEPH CHURCH FUNERAL LUNCHEONS

The Christian Women of Saint Joseph are pleased to provide service for parishioners for funeral luncheons following funeral services. The funeral luncheon is held in the school cafeteria and set-up of serving tables and tables used for guests/families to eat their dinners are provided. Paper products, cups, silverware and luncheon and dessert plates are provided if the caterers do not supply. Various desserts are plated and served on a dessert table. Coffee, punch, and water are prepared. Cream and sugar/sugar substitute will be available.

The ladies assist in serving dinner buffet style and will replenish serving dishes as needed and they also assist in preparing food that is left over for family members to take home. Clean-up of cafeteria and kitchen once all family and guest have gone.

Family members will need to decide on a caterer and order the food for dinner or if they wish they may bring their own food for the luncheon. The Christian Women Volunteers do not provide the main course food for dinner. Caterers that many families have used in the past are: Top of the Viaduct-330-832-8292; Smileys-330-832-3388; and Joey's Kendal Tavern-330-832-0414. Stewardship: "For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." -2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything - all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party or at work or out shopping, would your words and actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

Life Chain: Sunday, October 2nd from 2:30-3:30 pm will be Life Chain at Planned Parenthood, 2663 Cleveland Avenue NW, Canton during Respect Life Month. Arrive at 2:15 pm to pick up your sign.

A Note from Fr. Matthew

Here's to the "unprofitable servants" among us . . .

She's a mom. He's a dad. Their day starts at dawn, getting the kids up and fed and off to school. Then it's off to their jobs downtown. Most afternoons one or both leave early to get their son to his soccer practice or their daughter to her music lesson. Dinner is a team effort — but whether it's take-out or a casserole made the weekend before, the important thing is that they eat supper together as a family. Then it's clean-up, homework, baths and prayers in the early evening. Before Mom and Dad turn in, a load of laundry or office work, then a few quiet minutes to themselves as they crawl into bed. And the next day they do it all over again. Because that's how loving families roll.

The CEO gets the beautifully appointed corner office, an attentive and capable support staff — and a great compensation package. But the perks are not what the job is about. The good CEO sets the tone for the entire company. Quality standards, customer service, marketing, government relations, staffing issues, corporate ethics and community responsibility start and end with the chief executive officer. The CEO leads by the example he or she sets, by his or her own commitment to those values and standards, by the trust the organization can place in his or her words and actions. The CEO is also the one who stands before the board, the stockholders, and the customer. Every monthly sales report is a referendum on the CEO's leadership. And everyone is on board — until the arrows start to trend downward. It's how effective, accountable management works.

They're the members of their town or city council. Yeah, some are "politicians" in the worst sense of the word: they like being perceived as having power and authority; they've mastered the ability to answer questions without offending anyone; they quietly vote their own interests, despite their promises. But most members of city and town councils and boards are there to serve. They spend hours reading reports and studying the issues so they can manage the town's affairs responsibly and efficiently. They listen to constituent concerns and complaints when they run into them at the hardware store or market. They take the late-night and weekend calls from neighbors. They ask questions and then follow-up. And every two or four years they ask folks for their vote. It's the work that goes unseen by most, work that can't be detailed on a yard sign. They find satisfaction in doing something important for the families who live in this city or town. Long, thankless hours notwithstanding, it's what responsible leaders do.

Discipleship begins with the gratitude and humility of the servant in today's Gospel: to realize that the gift of faith requires justice, compassion and forgiveness; to realize, in the clarity of God's love, how blessed we have been and to see ourselves and others as brother and sister "servants" at the table of the Father. What drives us to fulfill the many roles we play in our lives should not be the titles and honors or the compensation and benefits, but the good we can make happen for all, the peace and justice we can bring to reality, the love we mirror that can transform our world. The "unprofitable servant" is not a "slave" of little consequence in the full scheme of things but a struggling sister or brother who possesses the humility and selflessness to be God's co-worker in the creation of his Kingdom here and now.

Have a great week and I'll see you in church. Fr. Matthew
